

Anything which can be done to strengthen the blocking/prevention of unsolicited phone calls and faxes for sales/marketing/surveys should be done. It is absolutely unacceptable for people to have the right to invade our privacy, without our prior explicit permission, for their commercial purposes. This should include charities.